ANNUAL MEETING
CANANDAIGUA LAKE, SEPTEMBER 21, 22, 23, 1972

ERNEST BRAUER SCHOLARSHIP applications may be deposited in the sealed box at the ALLUNY registration desk. The winner will be drawn by lot at the business meeting by Hank Ilnicky, who was a very close friend of Ernie's.

NOMINATION OF OFFICERS forms will be available and may be left for the Nominating Committee at the ALLUNY desk.

There will be a registration fee of $5.

ALL OFFICERS AND BOARD MEMBERS will be notified of a time and place for a meeting on Thursday following the LCP tour.

OPENING LUNCHEON--The speaker will be Arthur A. Charpentier, Dean of Admissions at Yale University.

RACE TRACK--Tickets for our group on Friday will be at the entrance gate. A gourmet lunch will be waiting for us through the courtesy of Wm. S. Hein & Company. Bill Hein, Jr. has informed me that his Mother and Father will not be able to be with us this year as his Father will be hospitalized at that time for an operation.

After a "winning" day at the track, we are "lucky" that same evening to have RUSSELL G. OSWALD, Commissioner of Corrections, speak at the dinner. Commissioner Oswald's book, "Attica--My Story", will be available on the 13th of October.

Following the tour of WIDMER'S WINERY on Saturday morning, the bus will take us to "The Vineyard", a nearby restaurant, where lunch will be "Dutch".

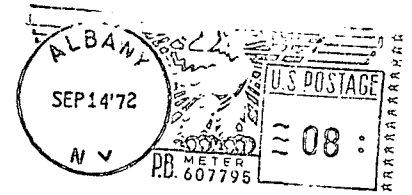

The JUDICIAL CONFERENCE will be represented by Neil O'Brien from New York City. This should be a very enlightening panel in view of the recent changes in some of the Judicial Conference Rules and some which are proposed. Mrs. Mona Dunn, a Staff Member from the Senate Finance Committee will also be present.

According to Jerry McColgan, the transportation information sheets are coming in rapidly and so are the hotel reservations. I don't know what has happened to the volunteer committee sheets but I haven't received any! These may be left at the ALLUNY desk when you register. If you find you are unable to attend the meeting, please mail any scholarship applications, nominations or committee assignment sheets to me at the Sheraton Canandaigua Inn to guarantee that they will be received in time.

See you at the Canandaigua Inn.
